

THE DIFFERENTIATED CLASSROOM --TWITTER BOOK CHAT--

Explore the latest in best practices through The Differentiated Classroom by Carol Ann Tomlinson (2014). Join us for a weekly Twitter chat to discuss the "underpinnings" of differentiation, instructional strategies, and how to "make it all work." Each week you will share thoughts, opinions, reflections, and questions with D131 colleagues through a private*, structured online book chat. Registered participants will receive a copy of the book. PD hours can be provided for meeting participation requirements and submitting the ISBE evaluation via My Learning Plan.
